

BRECON BAROQUE FESTIVAL

21 - 24 OCTOBER 2016

LONDON'S MUSIC 1550 - 1780

The 2016 festival explored the music of Henry Purcell and his contemporaries and included a staged production of Purcell's The Fairy Queen. Guest artists included Thomas Guthrie, Julian Podger and Trinity Baroque, Ystradivarius, Robin Blaze, and Tabea Debus and friends.

As well as the concert programme, the 2016 festival featured a rich programme of talks, guided and the Baroque Tea Dance. The pop-up cafe in 2016 was inspired by London's Restoration coffee-houses.
